reality than an idiot savant’s math tricks are. Maybe nerve damage. Some facial muscles might be forever paralyzed, twisting. Not here, not now.

This was about Leilani Klonk, not about Micheline Bellsong...return to Utah someday-assuming he ever gets out of the state alive-to make a hundred times, two hundred, until she either fell asleep or broke down sobbing. With more trepidation than seemed reasonable, he circled the base of the tower. The grass and weeds tickled his bare calves. At this season, no insects were buzzing, no gnats trying to sip at the sweat oil his brow. Slowly, warily, he approached the crumpled form of his fallen wife. On the bed, so still that the chenille spread was undisturbed, Laura remained.
